New Business

- Membership Chairman
 - 3 new members tonight!
 - Way to go Pat!
- Our goal: 50 total members by Jan.

Fly Outs

- Fly out to Manhattan VFR corridor?
 - Maybe in November
 - Obligatory meeting the night before we go--Watch the video again
 - Start north, head south, around Statue, head southwest to NJ for lunch
 - Around 8 persons interested

Manhattan Idea

- Go as a flight, fast to slow airplanes
- Lead and trail aircraft get sqawk codes

Carol at DeGol

- $135 collected so far for Carol
- She'll probably be taking a leave of absence in a couple of weeks
- Her husband Frank is very ill

Larry met with attorney

- We are now INCorporated!
- We have to keep minutes
- WRAP, Inc.
- Submit one form to city so they don't tax us
- What about potential liability?

Liability during Fly-Outs?

- Maybe we need an omnibus form?
- Consider using CAP Form 9 as a template

Sign-In Sheets

- Let's have a sign-in sheet so we know our audience and welcome newcomers

Updated Airport News

- Runway Overrun will be started
 - FAA wanted to shut down Localizer
- Work to start at departure end Rwy 27
- New FBO to be operated by county
 - Similar to Lock Haven, Northumberland
 - Construction to start Spring 2008

Getting our voice heard

- What is the best way to get our voice heard?

Rebecca Burke

- Welcome!
- Commissioners committed to alleviate pilots' concerns
- Airport Authority not prohibited from operating an FBO & fuel farm
- Ground to broken October 18, 2007
- Want to keep Tower
- Would like to have 2nd airline

Rebecca Burke, Q&A

- Timeframe? 2008Q1-2
- Would county consider alternative FBO at current location? Could someone else solve current problems w/o county subsidy? A: County is not subsidizing this effort. It's part of Airport Authority funding.

Rebecca Burke, Q&A²

- There are new grant dollars in recent years.
- Will the market support two FBOs?
Probably not.
- Goal: Be user friendly.
- The needs of the community need to come first.

Rebecca Burke, Q&A³

- Public is encouraged to attend Airport Authority meetings
- Pilots perceive that Authority goes into Executive Session frequently
 - Executive session for legal and personnel matters
- Are there any aviation people on the Airport Authority?

Rebecca Burke, Q&A⁴

- Pilots: “We like the Tower!”
- If we pilots want quarterly information, we should put together a request.
Commissioners’ Board Room is available for meetings of non-profit organizations.
- Which Commissioner(s) handle the Airport? For now, Rebecca Burke.
- Commissioners’ Secretary: 320-2124
